

Is That All There Is?
Is there still something you're yearning for?

- What do you want?
- Where are you on the “Status quo” scale?
- What makes your heart sing?
- What’s something that would be way outside the box for you?
- What does it mean to “reinvent?”
- Are you someone who “waits” or someone who “takes action”?
- What really scares you about change?
- What’s IN your comfort zone and What’s OUT of your comfort zone?
- All in all, what are you here to do NOW ... at this phase in your life? What’s your PURPOSE? Does it make you happy and fulfilled?
- Can you begin to lay out a plan of action?
- Who are your buddies who can support your plan of action?

Every time you fail to honor yourself,
A little piece of your spirit dies!

Four Precursors to Change:

- Show up
- Be willing
- Tell the truth
- Give yourself permission

You don't want to die with your dreams inside you!
